to relaxation

Overall size

2.44 x 2.44 (8' x 8') and

2.44 x 3.05 (8' x 10')

Due to current regulations, conservatories usually have to be built with your home, and if you wish to add a conservatory at a later date you will have to seek the permission of the park owner and the Local Authority, so it makes sense to choose your conservatory when you purchase your home and avoid possible future hassles and time-consuming paperwork.
